OPINIONS AND DECISIONS

JUDICIAL COUNCIL of THE METHODIST CHURCH

Decision No. 94

Re: Successor to Dr. Chas. B. Ketcham as member of the Judicial Council

DIGEST

Dr. L. Dorsey Spaugy, being the first in order of election of the ministerial alternates to membership upon the Judicial Council, is the lawful successor of Dr. Chas. B. Ketcham, deceased.

STATEMENT

On Thursday, April 2, 1953, Dr. Chas. B. Ketcham, member of the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, departed this life. Immediately upon his death the necessity arose of calling from among the ministerial alternates to membership upon the Council, the successor to Dr. Ketcham.

M. A. Childers, President of the Judicial Council, acting under the provision of Art. No. 3 of Par. 901, of the 1952 Discipline, providing that "Vacancies on the Judicial Council shall be filled by the alternate or alternates of the same class or respective classes in the order of their election as alternates," and the provisions of Par. 2115 of the Discipline listing Dr. L. Dorsey Spaugy the first ministerial alternate "in order of election," determined that Dr. Spaugy was the lawful successor of Dr. Ketcham to membership upon the Judicial Council. This determination was questioned by the Secretary of the General Conference, whereupon the question was submitted by the President to all members of the Council by wire and all but one member of the Judicial Council sustained the determination that had been made by the President of the Council.

Jurisdiction

This being a matter of great importance it would seem that this question should be made the subject of a formal declaratory decision by the Judicial Council.

Sub. 6, Par. 43 of the Discipline reads as follows:

"The Judicial Council shall have authority:

"6. To provide its own methods of organization and procedure."

The Judicial Council has broad powers, both under the Constitution and the acts of the General Conference to interpret the provisions of the Discipline. It would seem that the above quoted provision of the Constitution would give to the Council implied authority, at least, to determine from the provisions of the Discipline who shall fill vacancies in its membership occurring ad interim the sessions of the General Conference.

This implied authority is emphasized in the provisions of Art. 3, Par. 901, directing that "it shall be the duty of the President and Secretary of the Council to notify the alternate entitled to fill" a vacancy. If a question should be raised as to the proper one to call to fill such a vacancy, there is nobody except the Judicial Council authorized to determine such question.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the Council has jurisdiction to render a decision on the question of who shall be called to membership upon the Judicial Council to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Chas. B. Ketcham.

Analysis

Par. 901 of the Discipline deals with membership upon the Judicial Council, including the election of members and of alternates. The second unnumbered paragraph of Art. I of Par. 901, reads as follows:

"Members of the Council shall be nominated and elected in the manner following: At each quadrennial session of the General Conference, the Council of Bishops shall nominate by majority vote four times the number of ministers and four times the number of laymen to be elected at such session of the General Conference. At the same daily session at which the above nominations are announced, nominations for each class may be made from the floor."

The words "for each class" without question means the ministerial class and the lay class.

Article 2 of Par. 901 reads in part as follows:

"There shall be a like number of alternates of each class, and their qualifications shall be the same as for membership on the Judicial Council. The term of the alternates shall be for eight years."

"The alternates shall be elected in the manner following: From the nominees of each class remaining on the ballot after the election of the necessary number of members of the Judicial Council to be elected at sessions of the General Conference, the General Conference shall by separate ballot, without discussion and by majority vote, elect the number of alternates of each class to be elected at such session of the General Conference. An election shall be held at each session of the General Conference for only the number of each class whose terms expire at such session of the General Conference or to fill vacancies."

The term "each class" as used in this article could not be interpreted as meaning class of any particular year or years. In interpreting on that basis, all "whose terms expire at such session of the General Conference" would belong to the same class, and the term "each class" would have no meaning. It is clear that the term "each class," as used in Art. 2 of Par. 901 is to be construed as referring to ministerial and lay classes.

It is equally clear that the same interpretation is to be given to the term "of the same class or respective classes," as used in Art. 3, Par. 901. This paragraph reads in part as follows:

"If a vacancy or vacancies in the membership of the Judicial Council occur during the interim between sessions of the General Conference, they shall be filled by the Alternate or alternates of the same class or respective classes in the order of their election as alternates."

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that the expressions "of each class" or "respective classes" as used in the Articles of Par. 901 quoted above refer to ministerial and lay members or ministerial alternates or lay alternates, and not to the class or classes of any particular year or years; and that in case of vacancy in the ministerial membership on the Judicial Council the ministerial alternate first in order of election is entitled to fill such vacancy; and that in case of a vacancy in the lay membership on the Judicial Council, the lay alternate first in order of election is entitled to fill such vacancy.

It appearing from Par. 2115 of the Discipline that Dr. L. Dorsey Spaugy was the first ministerial alternate "in order of election," it is clear that Dr. Spaugy was and is entitled to fill the vacancy on the Judicial Council caused by the death of Dr. Chas. B. Ketcham. Accordingly the calling by the President of the Council of Dr. Spaugy to membership upon the Judicial Council is in all things affirmed and approved.

Decision No. 95

Re: Ruling of Bishop Paul N. Garber at Virginia Annual Conference, October 11, 1952, as to Paragraph 1618, Section 4, relating to the listing of special appointments in the Conference Journal.

DIGEST

Special appointments listed in the Annual Conference Journal in compliance with Paragraph 1618, Section 4, of the 1952 Discipline, showing annuity responsibility, must be the special appointments of the current Conference and not those of the previous Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Journal of the Virginia Annual Conference meeting in Norfolk, Virginia, records the following action:

"Report No. 1 on Conference Claimants—R. P. Riddick presented Report No. 1 of the Board of Conference Claimants, and it was adopted." (See appendix.)

This report as adopted contained the recommendations of the Board of Conference Claimants listing the special appointments with reference to their annuity claim as required in Paragraph 1618, Section 4 of the 1952 Discipline.

In connection with the report the following action was taken at the request of Bishop Paul N. Garber, the presiding officer:

"The Board of Conference Claimants of the Virginia Conference, in session October 9, 1952, on proper motion, requested the presiding Bishop to rule on Paragraph 1618, Section 4, of the Methodist Discipline (1948 and 1952) as to whether it refers to the special appointments of the current Conference or to special appointments of the preceding Annual Conference."

In response to this request, on October 10, 1952, Bishop Garber read the following statement to the Conference:

"This is a question that can be answered either way, for there are basic reasons to justify either answer. I feel that this is one question that should be settled by the Judicial Council. I, therefore, answer that Paragraph 1618, Section 4, of the Methodist Discipline, refers to special appointments of the preceding Annual Conference. I would appreciate it if my ruling should be appealed by our Virginia Conference to the Judicial Council."

The Journal then states:

"R. P. Riddick moved that the Conference appeal the decision above to the Judicial Council and the motion was adopted."

Jurisdiction

This question is properly before the Judicial Council for a decision for the following reasons:

1. Paragraph 908 of the Discipline 1952 states:

"The Judicial Council shall hear and determine any appeal from a Bishop's decision on a question of law made in the Annual or District Conference, when said appeal has been made by one fifth of that Conference present and voting."

2. Paragraph 909 of the Discipline 1952 states:

"The Judicial Council shall meet at least once a year and pass upon the decisions of law made by the Bishops in Annual and District Conferences upon questions submitted to them in writing, and reported in writing to the Council, with a syllabus of each case, and affirm, modify or reverse them. Before affirmation no episcopal decision shall be authoritative except in the case pending. When the decisions are affirmed, they shall become the law of the Church."

While the expressed purpose of Bishop Garber's ruling was to bring the question to the Judicial Council for decision it does come to the Council both by an episcopal ruling in an Annual Conference and by an appeal of the Conference from the Bishop's decision. The Judicial Council, therefore, is authorized to take jurisdiction.

Analysis

Paragraph 1618, Section 2, of the 1952 Discipline, reads as follows:

"The following years of approved service in the effective relation or on trial in an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, are eligible to be counted for the purpose of determining the annuity claims paid thereon:

- a) As pastor or associate pastor.
- b) As District Superintendent, presiding Elder, Conference President, or as a full-time salaried official of the Conference.
- c) Service rendered under special appointment to an institution, organization, or agency which in the judgment of the Annual Conference rendered to it some form of service, direct or indirect, sufficient to warrant granting an annuity from the Conference funds thereof, or to a community church; provided, however, that such institution, organization, agency, or community church accepts and pays annually such apportionments as the Annual Conference may require in accordance with the provisions as set forth in Paragraph 1623, Section 6, and provided furthermore, that any institution, organization, agency, or community church may arrange for a pension related to such service through the Joint Contributory Annuity Fund administered by the Board of Pensions."

The pertinent part of Section 4 of Paragraph 1618 reads as follows:

"Upon recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants and approved by the Annual Conference, special appointments shall be listed in the Conference Journal as follows:

- (1) With annuity claim (a) upon this Annual Conference, or (b) upon a general board, an institution or an agency of The Methodist Church;
- (2) Without annuity claim upon this Annual Conference."

It is clear that it was the intent of the provisions quoted above, that annuity responsibility should be determined before special appointments are made so that there may be no question either on the part of the minister involved or on the part of the board, institution or agency to which he may be appointed as to where the annuity responsibility lies.

Decision

In view of the above it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the recommendation of the Board of Conference Claimants concerning the annuity claim of persons in special appointments, the approval of the recommendation by the Annual Conference and the listing of same in the Conference Journal in compliance with Paragraph 1618, Section 4 of the Methodist Discipline 1952, applies to special appointments of the current Conference and not to special appointments of the preceding Conference. The ruling of the Bishop is hereby reversed.

Decision No. 96

Re: "Is the Discipline of The Methodist Church a Book of Law?"

DIGEST

The Discipline of The Methodist Church is a book of Law, and the only official and authoritative book of law of The Methodist Church—"a body of laws pertaining to Church government," regulating every phase of the life and work of The Methodist Church, including regulations relating to its temporal economy and to the ownership, use and disposition of church property.

STATEMENT

In a letter written to the Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church by Rev. Oscar M. Polhemus on February 19, 1953, he stated that one of the matters discussed at the annual meeting of the Trustees of the New Hampshire Annual Conference was "the result of the lawsuit instituted by the Trustees to recover property of an 'abandoned' church. We lost that suit. One of the factors in this failure was that the presiding officer ruled that our Discipline was not a book of law. The basis for this ruling was a sentence from the 'Episcopal Greetings': 'the Discipline became not a book of definite rules nor yet a formal code, but rather a record of the successive stages of spiritual insight attained by Methodists under the Grace of Christ.'" Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Secretary of the Council of Bishops, submitted the question of whether the Discipline is a book of law to the Judicial Council in a communication under date of June 12, 1953, which reads in part as follows:

"The Secretary made reference to the legal questions raised by the Rev. Oscar M. Polhemus . . . and the Council voted to refer the legal question to the Judicial Council."

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to hear and determine the question submitted to it by the Council of Bishops, as above set out.

Analysis

Under the Constitution of The Methodist Church, the General Conference is the only law making body of the Church and the only body authorized to speak officially for The Methodist Church (Paragraph 512 of the Discipline). The Discipline contains the Constitution and the enactments of the General Conference. It is self evident that the Discipline is a "Book of law." Therefore, a decision seems unnecessary. The "Episcopal Greetings" of the Bishops contained in the Discipline is neither a part of the Constitution nor an enactment of the General Conference. Hence it is no part of the "body of laws" governing the life and work of the Church. But even the "Episcopal Greetings" apparently relied on by the Judge in the New Hampshire case is not subject to the interpretation given to it by the Judge. The true meaning of this statement is revealed by the next sentence following the one quoted, which next sentence reads as follows:

"We have therefore expected that the Discipline would be administered not merely as a legal document, but as a revelation of the Holy Spirit working in and through our people."

It is clear, from this language, that the statement of the Bishops relied on by the trial judge in the New Hampshire case was not intended as a denial that the Discipline is a "book of law," but was intended as an affirmation that the Discipline is a book of law—"A legal document," and that in its administration it can also become a means of spiritual grace.

This same interpretation is expressed in different words in the Historical Statement forming a part of the preface to the Discipline. Note the following quotation from pages 5 and 6 of the 1952 Discipline:

"Our present Articles of Religion come from this book and unite us with the historic faith of Christendom. Our Ritual, too, though it has been modified, has this as its source. However, the forms for public worship taken from the Book of Common Prayer were not adapted to the freer religious life of American Methodism and never entered into common use. Instead, Methodism CREATED A BOOK OF ITS OWN, ITS DISCIPLINE. This contains today the Articles of Religion, Wesley's General Rules, the Ritual and other forms of worship, AND A LARGE SECTION WHICH DEALS WITH THE MINISTRY, THE VARIOUS CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS, AND THE RULES GOVERNING THE LIFE AND WORK OF THE CHURCH."

Furthermore, the first 98 Articles of the Discipline constitute "The Plan of Union" under which the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church were united in 1939 to form The Methodist Church. Under this plan a uniting Conference was called to effect the union. This uniting Conference unanimously adopted "The Declaration of Union" as set out on pages 7 and 8 of the Discipline. Paragraph II of the Declaration of Union reads as follows:

"The Plan of Union as adopted is and shall be the Constitution of this United Church and of its three constituent bodies."

Paragraph 10 of the Discipline, a part of the Plan of Union, treats the Plan of Union as the Constitution of the United Church and prescribed the method by which this Constitution may be amended. Paragraph 45 of the Discipline, also a part of the Constitution of the United Church, prescribes the procedure for and the duties of the Uniting Conference.

Subdivisions 1 and 2 of Article IV of Paragraph 45 read as follows:

"Art. IV. The duties and powers of the Uniting Conference, subject to the provisions of the Plan of Union shall be:

"1. To harmonize and combine the RULES AND REGULATIONS as found in the Disciplines of the three Churches relating to membership, the conferences, the ministry, judicial administration and temporal economy."

"2. To harmonize and combine the Rituals of the three Churches."

This is a positive declaration in the Constitution of the United Church that the Disciplines of the three churches contained their respective "rules and regulations, relating to membership, the conferences, the ministry, judicial administration and temporal economy," as well as the respective Rituals of the uniting churches. The Discipline, subject to the provisions of the Constitution, is amended and revised, as may appear necessary by each quadrennial session of the General Conference. This Constitution, Paragraph 8 of the Discipline, states that "the General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional, and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority" (among other things,):

"To enact such other legislation as may be necessary, subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution of the Church."

Under this broad legislative power the General Conference has enacted provisions relating to property, its ownership, trust clauses to go with conveyances, regulations governing sales and conveyances of church property, and various other provisions dealing with the life and work of the Church and its temporal economy. Attention is also called to the fact that Division III of the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as set out in its Discipline, is entitled "Articles of Organization and Government." The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was denominated:

"The Doctrines and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South."

The Methodist Protestant Discipline was denominated:

"Constitution and Discipline of the Methodist Protestant Church."

Webster's International Dictionary defines "Discipline" as:

"Body of laws pertaining to conduct, church government, etc."

"Body of laws, or practices which may be altered to meet changing conditions."

Thus (1) from historical usage, (2) from the word "Discipline" used in the title of the book of each of the uniting Churches containing its rules and regulations, (3) from the accepted and authoritative definition of the word "Discipline," and (4) from the contents of the book itself, the Discipline of The Methodist Church is not only a book of law, but it is the only official and authoritative book of law of The Methodist Church.

Decision

Therefore, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that the Discipline of The Methodist Church is a book of law governing every aspect of the life and work of the Church, including regulations relating to its temporal economy and to the ownership, use and disposition of church property. It is the only official and authoritative law book of the Church.

Decision No. 97

Re: The request of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference for a declaratory decision concerning the relationship of "approved full-time supply pastors" (Par. 315-c to Paragraph 320 of the Discipline.

DIGEST

ALL "approved full-time supply pastors" except those who have already been ordained elders are required to obey the provisions of Paragraph 320 of the Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A letter, dated June 16, 1953, from Wayne D. Griffen, Secretary, notified the Judicial Council of the following resolution adopted by the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference in its session on June 12, 1953:

"Judicial ruling is asked on paragraph 315 relative to category "C"; and paragraph 320, with special emphasis on whether or not the enforcement of paragraph 320 involves retroactive action to include all approved supply pastors now serving or just those who come into that relationship in the future (Conf. year 1953-54, on)."

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914-(8) of the Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction and this request for a declaratory decision comes properly before us.

Analysis

Paragraph 320 of the Discipline reads as follows:

"Approved supply pastors who are giving their full time to pastoral work under the district superintendents shall be required to take the Conference Course of Study, including the course for admission on trial. The courses shall be taken by correspondence, or part by correspondence and part in a standard Pastor's school or summer school for ministerial training, except that credits for the courses of study may be accepted from the Schools of Theology and colleges, as described in Paragraphs 326-27. Any approved supply pastor who fails to observe the requirements of this section, or who shall fail to complete two years of the course of study within four years and the entire course within eight years, shall not be employed by a district superintendent."

It is certainly evident from the wording of this paragraph that all approved full-time supply pastors must observe these requirements. There are no provisions for suspending this rule.

Paragraph 315-(1) reads as follows:

"The Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications shall recommend annually to the Annual Conference those who have met the requirements to become approved supply pastors for the ensuing year, classifying them in one of the following categories: (a) approved student supply pastors who are in schools, colleges, or seminaries preparing for Conference membership; (b) approved part-time supply pastors other than students; (c) approved full-time supply pastors who are elders or are taking the course of study preparing for ordination as required by Paragraph 320 and are giving full time to pastoral work."

Again, it is evident from the wording of category (c), which refers "approved full-time supply pastors" to the requirements of Paragraph 320, that the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications is given the responsibility of enforcing the provisions of Paragraph 320 in relation to all who seek approval as full-time supply pastors, who have not received ordination as elders. It is the obvious intent of these provisions in the Discipline that all approved full-time supply pastors shall be either fully ordained or making progress toward full ordination under the provision of Paragraph 320.

The term "retroactive" used in the resolution of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference requesting a ruling in this matter is not pertinent here. It is not required, for instance, that the provisions of Paragraph 320 concerning time, etc., be made retroactive to cover past years wherein a person may have had a relationship to the Conference as a supply pastor. It is certainly required, however, that all approved full-time supply pastors, now serving, who have not received ordination as elders, shall obey the provisions of Paragraph 320 regardless of age or years of service.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that all approved full-time supply pastors must satisfy the requirements of Paragraph 320 of the Discipline. They must have met in full the educational requirements and have received ordination as elders, or, they must now be subject to the provisions of this paragraph, preparing for ordination.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members, including Probationers, whose present relation to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year in which the man was received into Full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that the name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the man having been removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Boldface type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Statistical Office, 740 Rush St., Chicago 11, Ill.
